

Dublin Crew Refund Policy

(Approved by the Dublin Crew Board 10/22/2003)

Dues and Fees Determined

Membership dues and corresponding late fees will be established prior to each rowing season by the Executive Committee.

Membership dues for each season will be published in advance and due in full at each season's Parents' Meeting.

A fee will be assessed to any account not paid in full at the Parents' Meeting unless an extended term payment plan is arranged prior to the Parents' Meeting.

Departure from Dublin Crew

If a participant is no longer a part of Dublin Crew due to a competitive cut, all prior payments for that season will be refunded.

If a participant is no longer a part of Dublin Crew due to a disciplinary action, all prior payments for that season are non-refundable.

A refund of all but $50 of fees paid is available to participants who drop out for any reason within ten (10) days following the Parents' Meeting.

After the ten (10) days and within the period extending to seven (7) days before the first regatta, a refund of 50% of the fees paid is available to participants who drop out for any reason.

After seven (7) days before the first regatta, no refunds are available, except as specifically noted below.

After seven (7) days before the first regatta, if a participant is forced to drop out of Dublin Crew for a verifiable and verified medical reason, a pro-rata refund of all prior payments for that season is available.

Fundraising Credits

Money credited to an account as a result of fundraising efforts is not eligible for refund. Fundraising proceeds are to be applied to fees and purchases due Dublin Crew. Fundraising credits remaining in a participant's account after leaving Dublin Crew can be applied to outstanding fees or purchases of Dublin Crew merchandise. No cash refunds will be given.

Crew Events

Money paid in advance for Crew Events, including but not limited to banquets, crew rooms, meals, outings, etc., are non-refundable, regardless of circumstance.

Remaining Money in Account

Dublin Crew will refund money, other than fundraising credits, to a participant who is no longer eligible to be a member of Dublin Crew in accordance with the by-law provisions in effect at the time of the departure.
